Friday, 22nd November

9:40h Departure towards Figueres City

10:00h Guided tour in Theatre – Museum Dalí. It is a genuine experience walking around the museum and finding out all the secrets about each painting. Discover the Surrealism art movement and one of the most influencing artist of the 20th century, Salvador Dalí.

"A true painter is one who can paint extraordinary scenes in the middle of an empty desert. A true painter is one who can patiently paint a pear in the midst of the tumults of history." Salvador Dalí.

12:00h Transfer to MOOMA

12:45h Cider Degustation and Lunch at Mooma.

Mooma is a family project that was created some year ago with the aim of bringing the taste and the aroma of the Empordà closer to the public through a product that is not very well known in this land: cider

14:45h Burricleta e-Bike activity around the medieval villages of Costa Brava.

This bike tour will allow you to visit the most beautiful corners of the region in a safe, fun and in environmentally friendly way. The Burricleta (electric bike) will make you pedal while conversing with colleagues and enjoying the surroundings and privileged views of the Empordà

16:30h Transfer to La Bisbal d'Empordà

16:50h Check in and site inspection at Hotel Castell d'Empordà****. This boutique hotel occupies a restored 14th century castle. In 1973, Salvador Dalí tried to acquire the castle by exchanging it for his art, but the owner of that time declined the offer. Finally, after being abandoned of several year, the family Diks restored it as a hotel.

18:00h Free time

20:00h Dinner at Restaurant Sala Gran

La Sala Gran is a gourmet restaurant specializing in chargrilled fish and locally-sourced produce. It bases its cuisine on solid, clearly-established values – tradition, innovation, culture and sustainability – always using the best local ingredients.

22:00h Back to the hotel

Saturday, 23rd November

9.30h Check out and transfer to La Fortalesa de Sant Julià de Ramis

10.00h Site inspection at La Fortalesa de Sant Julià de Ramis

An exclusive, gourmet experience at an extraordinary venue. A former military fortress provides a unique setting for different spaces that are ideal for hosting all sorts of corporate events and social functions. The complex's underlying theme of jewels and precious stones is set off by its architecture, which merges with the landscape and settings, and by chef Jordi Cruz's haute cuisine. The facility provides a blend of art and culture with the DOR Museum and five-star accommodation with the Sants Metges Hotel.

11.30h Transfer to Girona city

11.45h Gastronomic city tour in Girona City

Girona Food Tours is the first company dedicated to organizing food tours in Girona. By doing its guided tour, you are about to discover the highlights of the local gastronomy in a unique medieval city and its stunning region. Come to Girona, meet the locals and learn about the delicious culinary traditions through the eyes of a local foodie.

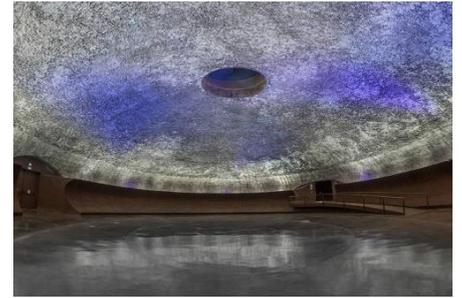

15.11h High Speed Train Girona - Barcelona Sants Station (37 minutes)

15.48h Arrival at Barcelona Sants Station

16.00h Transfer from Sants Station to hotel Ohla Eixample 5*. Check in and welcome

Ohla Eixample is a brand new 5-star boutique hotel located in the heart of the modernist Eixample district in Barcelona, only steps from the emblematic Passeig de Gracia avenue.

The hotel offers a universe of different experiences through the personality and comfort of its bedrooms, a hidden garden patio and a rooftop terrace with an astonishing and heated pool, unique in Barcelona. The finest gastronomy coexists between Xerta Restaurant (haute cuisine from the Ebro Delta recognized with a Michelin star), the Lobby Bar (meeting point for both locals and hotel guests), and the Sky Bar (creative cocktails and genuine city sights). A delicate and personalized service will help create an unforgettable stay.

18.00h Meeting at the Olha hall lobby

18.30h Gin & Tonic Workshop at Agüelo013

The Dutch may have invented the gin (in its earlier form, genever), the British added the tonic, but it was the Spanish who perfected the garnish and elevated the drink to the level of art. Nowhere in the world can you find better gin and tonics than in bars in Spain.

Located in the Gothic Quarter of Barcelona, Agüelo013 is an emblematic venue in the city where a special magic can be felt between its old Roman walls and vaulted ceilings.

By the hand of a professional mixologist, you will learn to combine the appropriate ingredients and alcohols to create the best gin & tonics to impress all your friends.

20.30h Diner at Torre d'Alta Mar
torredealtamar.com

A 360° panoramic views of the port, the beach, the city, the mountains and the entire coast line of Barcelona. Signature cuisine in a spacious and elegant dining room where the main decoration is the iron beams and rivets from the beginning of the last century.
